

October 29, 1923.

Mr. John W. Suter,
24 Chestnut Street,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Suter:

Thank you! I have filed your order for the books, and your order will be filled as soon as they come from the printers - which will be in a few weeks. I expect a very handsome publication, as well as one of real worth, ethnologically and musically.

The subscriptions have already run up to nearly half of the first edition, which indicates that undoubtedly I shall be able to carry out a series of such books.

I am still sailing on an even keel - gaining a little if anything, and very much stronger than I was a few months ago. I think with care and reasonable luck, I shall be good for several years more of production.

With love and all best wishes,

Yours Glassmate and Friend,

GFL/R
